

Having a ball at Gumbo Limbo

Mr. Beck, a volunteer with the construction of a reef hall at Gumbo Limbo nature center, removes part of a mold that was used to build the project's first reef ball. The creations are part of an artificial reef program under way at the center.