

REEF IN THE ROUND

nt

ost Reef
are funded
ent of
Protection
er fees.
nywhere
00 each,
ize, said
esident and
officer of
opment

Balls are al-
high marks,
state of eco-
y is doing re-
the balls and
r use in spe-
An upcoming
st of Jamaica
ent of a Reef
ies in the bot-
ot lobsters at

st Reef Ball
led by the De-
omental Pro-
ot user fees,
anywhere
depend-
said, al-
ways to bring

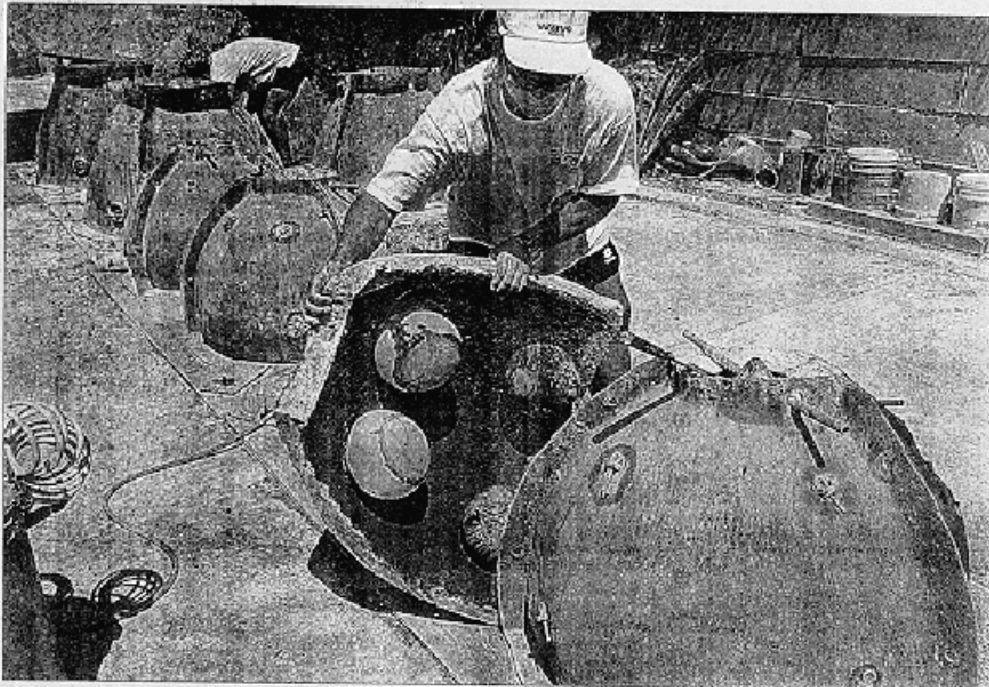

nd of the day
you can get
an sometimes
fishing clubs
he said.

be awhile be-
hear a single
f Ball hitting
Bay.

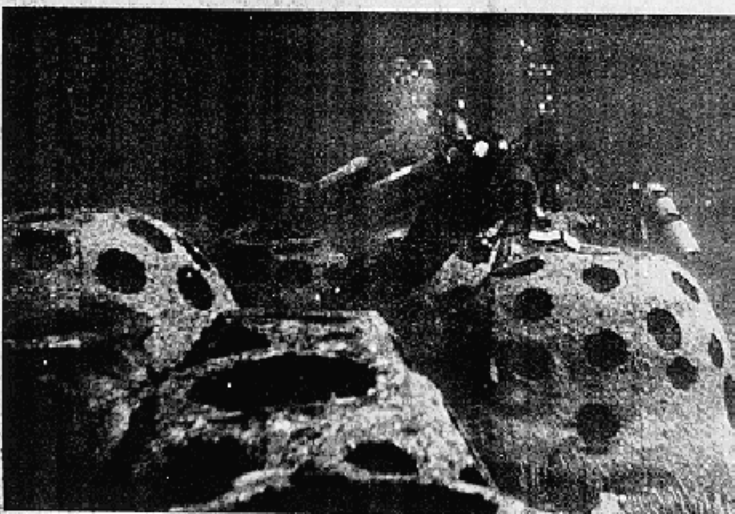

a starting to
re are a lot of
to answer.
ie, a biologist
Division of Management.
goal, I worry
ie up to the
n the channel,
got a problem
Bay."

also wants to
a impacts the
hannel mark-
through their
increased bio-
s the liferpa-

the best thing
ad, there are
it have to be
concerns that
ed," he said.

ABOVE: Larry Beggs pulls the mold off a Reef Ball as Harry Rolfe works on other molds in the background. The balls are made of a special concrete that is poured into molds made out of fiberglass and inflatable balls.
Ben Gray/Staff

LEFT: Divers check a newly installed Reef Ball in Cancun, Mexico. Special to the Daily News

Discover something comfortable.
made furniture.
able and affordable.
er 500 styles.

Y

Knot